

APOSTLE

JONATHAN L. PATTERSON

BOOKING & HOSPITALITY KIT

Ministry • Leadership • Prophetic • Healing • Deliverance

HOSTING & TRAVEL INFORMATION

Apostle Jonathan L. Patterson

Apostle Jonathan L. Patterson is a dynamic visionary leader with more than two decades of ministry, leadership, and marketplace experience. He is a pastor, apostolic leader, author, organizational strategist, transformational speaker, executive leadership coach, and college lecturer. His work equips leaders with practical wisdom, Kingdom insight, organizational clarity, and a strong commitment to personal and spiritual formation.

He moves in integral prophetic ministry and is known for ministry in healing and deliverance, with notable signs that point to the Glory of God. His ministry emphasis joins revelation with formation - strengthening believers, developing leaders, restoring lives, and helping ministries and organizations steward their assignments with excellence and integrity.

Across ministry and professional settings, Apostle Patterson serves as a teacher and communicator who helps people discern purpose, embrace responsibility, and move courageously into the work before them.

MINISTRY & PROFESSIONAL HIGHLIGHTS

- Apostolic leadership & pastoral ministry
- Integral prophetic ministry
- College lecturer & transformational speaker
- Healing & deliverance ministry
- Author, teacher & leadership coach
- Leader development & organizational strategy

DINING / FOOD & BEVERAGES

Apostle Patterson currently follows a pescatarian diet. Please plan meals around fish, seafood, vegetables, fruit, whole grains, and other light plant-forward options. He appreciates fresh fruit snacks and simple, healthy selections. Please avoid meat and poultry unless his office specifically advises otherwise.

After preaching or presenting, he may prefer to have dinner in his room. He appreciates 100% fruit juice, water, and hot tea while ministering. Please feel free to confirm his preference before meal preparation.

AIRLINES & TRAVEL

- Preferred air carrier: Delta Air Lines. Southwest and American Airlines are also acceptable.
- Please contact the office before finalizing airfare to confirm the itinerary and obtain any required traveler information.
- Coach travel is acceptable; however, please select a fare that allows seat selection and reasonable upgrade options. Please do not seat him in a middle seat.
- Please avoid highly restrictive ticket classes that prevent changes or upgrades. His pastoral and national ministry schedule may require flexibility.
- When requested by the office, travel may include one (1) adjutant or ministry companion depending on the location and service assignment.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

- Please reserve a non-smoking Queen or King room in a quality hotel with reliable in-room Internet access.
- A hotel with an on-site restaurant and late-night room-service availability is preferred when possible.
- Please advise the office of the hotel's room-service policy and check-in details before arrival.
- Additional staff accommodations may occasionally be needed. The office will advise in advance.
- If an adjutant accompanies Apostle Patterson, he will assume financial responsibility for the adjutant's room and meals unless otherwise arranged.

GROUND TRANSPORTATION

- Please arrange dependable airport-to-hotel, hotel-to-venue, and return transportation for Apostle Patterson and any approved traveling staff.
- He may travel with books and ministry products. When materials are present, male assistance with luggage and product transport is appreciated.
- If staff travels with him, they will normally set up the product display. If he travels alone, please designate someone to assist with setup, sales, and breakdown.
- An inventory sheet with product pricing and summaries may be provided when applicable.

AUDIO / VISUAL

Apostle Patterson requests a high-quality handheld cordless microphone and a microphone stand while ministering or presenting, when possible. Please ensure the audio system is tested and ready before the service or session begins.

HONORARIUM

HE HAS NO SET HONORARIUM.

While Apostle Patterson has no set honorarium, he regularly receives a minimum of $2,000.00 when presenting, speaking, or ministering. This amount is not presented as a fixed fee; it reflects the level of honorarium he commonly receives for an engagement.

Any additional responsibilities requested beyond the agreed ministry or speaking assignment should be compensated accordingly. Honorarium checks should be made payable to Jonathan Patterson. CashApp, Zelle, and Venmo are also available; please contact his Executive Assistant for current payment details.

IMPORTANT

Please confirm the final engagement expectations, travel details, and hospitality arrangements with the office before the event so that all parties are aligned.

Thank You for Hosting

This information is provided to assist you in hosting and preparing for Apostle Jonathan L. Patterson's visit to your ministry, conference, organization, or event. He is low maintenance and easy to serve. When unsure, simply ask. Thank you in advance for your care, thoughtfulness, and gracious hospitality.

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT

Raelese Allen

Email: raelese1030@gmail.com

Mobile: 443-677-9994

Please route scheduling, travel, and payment questions through the office.

With Gratitude

Apostle Jonathan L. Patterson Booking & Hospitality Kit

Prepared for ministry hosts, event planners, and partner organizations